

Marina Executive Board To Meet Sept. 2 in Inglewood

Executive Board of the Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its meeting Friday, Sept. 2, 10:15 p.m. at the Inglewood Woman's Club, 325 North Hillcrest Blvd., Inglewood.

Mrs. Hunter S. Haley, president of the hostess club, will welcome members and Mrs. O. S. Larabee, president of Marina District, will preside over the meeting. Others on the agenda will be Mrs. Karl E. Bishop, dean of presidents, and Mrs. Erwin Graf, dean of chairmen.

Vice chairmen are invited to attend this meeting. All luncheon reservations should be made by Aug. 30. Reservations chairmen are Mrs. Alfred Swanson, North chairman, 550 Almar St., Pacific Palisades; and Mrs. A. M. Lindner, South chairman, 1215 Monterey Blvd., Hermosa Beach.

The September council and workshop will be Friday, Sept. 23, at the Pacific Palisades Community Church, 801 Via de la Paz, Pacific Palisades. The Pacific Palisades Woman's Club will be hostess.

Four workshops are scheduled to be held by the Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, according to Mrs. O. S. Larabee, president.

On Sept. 23, the workshop will be held at the Pacific Palisades Community Church and the subject will be "Group Leadership" and "Officers and their Duties."

The second workshop will be held Nov. 11, at the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club and the subject "Ethical Obligations of Officers" and "Motions, Amendments and Debate."

Jan. 27, the third workshop will be held also at the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club. Topic of this meeting will be "Federation Provides Avenues for Worthwhile Service," and also "Nominations and Elections."

The last workshop will be held March 31 at the El Segundo Woman's Club. Subject will be "Convention Time — What Do I Do About It?" Reports will be given by the board and committees.

Mrs. A. Ben Ellery, parliamentarian of Marina District, has named Mrs. William Andes of the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club as her vice chairman. Appointed to the Committee

Revisions are Mrs. Harold E. Crozier, Hawthorne Woman's Club; Mrs. William Greist, Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club; and Mrs. Horace Tilton, El Segundo Woman's Club.

Texans Observe Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Wilhelm of Austin, Texas, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Aug. 13 at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Kuyper, 4111 W. 173rd St., Torrance. The couple was married on Aug. 13, 1910 at Lisbon, Ohio.

Attending the wedding anniversary dinner were a son, Leonard W. Wilhelm, his wife and two sons of Austin, Tex., a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Quillin, her husband and son of San Diego and Mr. and Mrs. William Kuyper and three children of Torrance.

ELONGATED TORSO . . . High fashion for fall is the new elongated torso shown here in a medium gray arnel and viscose with permanently pleated skirt. This is a Pat Hartly creation to be featured at the May Co. show on Aug. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

May Co. Show To Feature New Pat Hartly Creations

Californians are going to have the opportunity to see the exciting Pat Hartly dress collection and won such raves from the American press and fashion experts at their preview this summer in New York City.

May Co. South Bay will present the exclusive Pat Hartly Clockwise Fashion Show in the Misses Dress department on Friday, Aug. 26, at 7:30 p.m.

The around the clock wardrobe collection of Pat Hartly features fall colors that are sophisticated and flattering; such shades as Manhattan red, Golden Pheasant, Crystal Gray, Creme de Cocoa, Vanilla Beige, Venetian Green and the very elegant high fashion combination of Cognac and Black Coffee.

Just as the Pat Hartly colors are light in heart, the fabrics are light in weight. Pat Hartly understands that the truly smart woman wants to be comfortable as well as chic. Fabrics include knits; worsted plaids with a tweedy look; chiffon flannel; brocades; casement checks; and a group in all the recently developed man-made fibres.

Pat Hartly silhouettes are frankly out to please in contrast to some of the shock

Dinner Guests

Among the localites who recently enjoyed the tropical atmosphere, exotic cuisine and island entertainment at The Polynesian Restaurant were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Collins of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Gunn of Hollywood Riviera and Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Buckhalter of Torrance.

treatments imported from Paris. Handsome sheaths, lovely princess lines, the figure-flattering torso, the modified blouson, the festive "Champagne Glass" skirt . . . all of these feminine silhouettes will be featured in the May Co. fashion shows.

Outstanding style highlight of the collection is the important "strip pleaser" idea that Pat Hartly launched (beating Paris to the Punch!) that permits you to remove a casual and have an important dinner dress underneath. Other important style trends to be seen are the sleeveless jacket, the poncho, the tunic, and mock coat and suit dresses.

Neighbor Is Welcomed

Greeting Mrs. Edward Y. Gerding, Jr., who with her husband and two children recently moved into the neighborhood, were a group of women who gathered for a coffee last Wednesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George L. Percy, 4921 Paseo del Pavon in Torrance.

Assisting Mrs. Percy was her daughter, Mrs. Robert P. Dawson.

Neighbors dropping in to welcome Mrs. Gerding were Mes. Merrill Bickmore, H. B. Chandler, Don Cortum, Tom M. Crump, Richard R. Crane, John Edenfield, John H. Glenn, William L. Luzan, Eugene S. Martin, Bernard O'Brien, Frank W. Peterson, Gerald Pierick, Wayne O. Pratt, L. L. Salzer and S. Freymondson.
